

Debbie Smith joined Jasper High School in 1998 as a Business Computer Information System (BCIS) teacher of the Computer Technical Education (CTE) Department. Prior to coming to Jasper, TX, she was a retired Principal at De Ridder Jr. High of De Ridder Louisiana. Debbie received her BS. In Vocational Business Education from Southern University; Baton Rouge, LA, her M.Ed. in Supervision and Administration from McNeese University; Lake Charles, Louisiana, M.Ed.+³⁰ (Specialist in Reading) from McNeese University, Lake Charles, Louisiana. IC³ Microsoft Office Specialist Certification, from Certiport, Austin, TX, and PCC Professional Certified Coach from Sonoma, CA.

Debbie's Professional Experiences:

- Assistant Principal of Discipline
- Assistant Principal of Curriculum,
- Business Education Teacher
- Beauregard Parish Master Teacher, she trained beginning teachers in effective teaching practices and classroom management techniques.
- Supervisor/Director - she was responsible for managing and training one hundred teachers for the Louisiana teacher's assessment/evaluation, Pre-K-12th grade.
- Sowela Technical Community College-Accounting
- Lamar Salter Technical College-Accounting/Computer Classes
- Angelina College-Computer Classes

Debbie Smith's accomplishments include: De Ridder High School Teacher of the Year. Beauregard Parish Teacher of the Year, Finalist of Louisiana Teacher of the Year, Nominated Principal of the Year, Jasper High School Teacher of the Year, and Finalist of The Jasper High School Foundation Teacher of Year Award.

She currently resides in De Ridder, Louisiana, with her husband Charles. Debbie and Charles have been married for forty-four years. They have two daughters, Keisha Smith Wright of Ft. Myers, Florida, and Tamera Smith Clark of Keller, Texas. Debbie and her husband have worked in the mission field for years in the States and on Foreign land.

For information or questions email dsmith@jasperisd.net